
Relationship of Healthy Food

This workshop will go over the Health Enhancement & Safety Division, who we are, and what we do. We will discuss the relationship of healthy food, brain function and behavior/risky behaviors that is closely associated with the growing numbers of hungry children in Montana. We will also talk about the data supporting breakfast in schools and recess before lunch, as well as data supporting exercise/movement and learning.